President's Message

TONIGHT marks the end of four years of struggle and triumph, of joy and sorrow. We have now completed our high school education and are about to meet problems we have never encountered before.

But we have been strengthened morally, socially and intellectually to face the world.

Our education could not have been possible without the help of our parents, the guidance of Mr. Hinckley, and the understanding and support of our teachers.

It is with a sad farewell that we leave our alma mater. We face an unknown future but we will do our best to become substantial citizens of our community and our nation, taking on the responsibilities expected of us.

FRANCIS CZACHOR, President

Valedictory

NIL SINE NUMINE--NOTHING WITHOUT DIVINE GUIDANCE

AS WE graduate tonight, it is with sorrow and yet with joy that we bid farewell to the surroundings, the teachers, and the friends that we have known these past four years. What now lies in the past we know and remember well. It is what lies ahead that is unknown.

We face an uncertain future, one filled with international struggles and rumors of wars. We wonder exactly what the future does hold for each of us, and for our country as a whole; but this is not given for us to foresee and understand.

One thing we do know now, and can rest assured of--that the God who put us here in this world will not leave us to face the future alone. Many people feel that we, as a nation, have turned from Him and His ways. If we thought we could do a better job of running our nation, and our individual lives, alone, we have proved time and again that this is not so.

Although we may have forgotten God, however, He has not forgotten us--we whom He purchased with a price on Calvary so many years ago. Whenever we humble ourselves and turn to Him, He is waiting to receive us, and to lead and guide us in our daily activities both as a nation and as individuals. Then can we truly say NIL SINE NUMINE--NOTHING WITHOUT DIVINE GUIDANCE.

DORIS LUCILLE ROYCE

Salutatory

ON BEHALF of the class of 1961, it is my pleasure to welcome you to our commencement exercises.

These past four years have prepared us for the unknown future which we must now face. Through our parents, teachers, and friends, we have acquired the knowledge and the courage to follow the pathway into the world of tomorrow. We know that we will encounter many problems and tribulations and we are grateful to you for your help and understanding.

This marks the point in our lives where we embark on a new adventure to find our places in the world. There can be no footsteps backward. It is now up to us to meet the future with faith, trusting ourselves to take on new responsibilities. This is the time for determining our places in society. It is we who will be the future citizens. With the help of God, we will do our best to make proud those who believe in us.

Without your help we could not have faith in the future.

Thank you and again, I sincerely welcome you to this, our commencement.

Class History

1957-1958

IT WAS September, 1957, that 45 bewildered Freshmen invaded the halls of West Rutland High School, to begin a new and eventful era in their lives.

After much confusion, we were directed into the study hall where Mr. Hinckley seated us alphabetically. We thought we were settled; however, we had the task of getting to know our teachers, arranging our schedules, and awaiting the dreaded Freshman Reception.

With Freshman Reception over, we were now full-fledged freshmen; Mr. Hinckley organized a meeting in which George Stomper was elected President; Vice President, Anna Gola; Secretary, William Arnado; Treasurer, Thomas Bania.

By this time football season was well underway. The Frosh boys offering their support were William Arnado, Thomas Bania, Richard Dodds, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski.

In the field of drama, Beverly Boudreau was our only participant in the Athletic Play, "Dotty and Daffy."

With the cold and bitter winter setting in, the athletes on the basketball court were William Arnado, Thomas Bania, Richard Dodds, John Kruszewski, Richard LeFevre, John Molaski and George Stomper.

Beverly Boudreau, Sheila Nelson, Patricia Pietryka, and Rose Turner were chosen as Junior Varsity Cheerleaders.

At the approach of the Holiday Season the band and glee club presented the annual Christmas Concert. The Freshman voices of Anna Gola, Celia Johnson, Patricia Kaszuba, Doris Royce, Theresa Salengo, Rose Turner, Francis Czachor, John Kruszewski, John Kurant, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski were heard in the Glee Club, supervised by Miss Bliss. The members of the band were Beverly Boudreau, Mary Theresa Hanlon, Celia Johnson, Sheila Nelson, Noreen Ravenna, Doris Royce, George Hults, John Molaski, and John Zawistoski.

With the coming of spring all interests were directed to baseball, in which sport William Arnado, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski offered their ability.

John Zawistoski was our only participant in the annual Prize Speaking Contest. His selection "Junior's First Shave" won the boy's prize.

To replace outgoing majorettes, Anna Gola and Patricia Pietryka were chosen by the band committee.

June came soon, and after a week of studying for exams, scorned Freshmen closed the text books and made future plans for September, when they would be upperclassmen.

1958-1959

AN ENJOYABLE summer vacation prompted us to resume as sophisticated sophomores.

Immediately, Miss Bliss, our class advisor, called a class meeting. We elected the following officers: President, John Zawistowski; Vice President, Jeanette Borecki; Secretary, John Kruszewski; Treasurer, Thomas Bania. They were automatically on the Freshman Reception committee. Offering help to the officers were Francis Czachor, Richard Dodds, George Stomper, Beverly Boudreau, Anna Gola, and Helen Salengo. All these students worked together composing stunts, which helped to work off an old grudge.

Our football players offering support that year were William Arnado, Thomas Bania, Richard Dodds, John Zawistowski, Richard LeFevre, George Stomper, and John Kruszewski.

In autumn our class presented "Fit For Victory," for a One-Act Play. Displaying their acting skill in the play were Beverly Boudreau, Anna Gola, Patricia Kaszuba, Francis Czachor, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski.

The sophomore musicians offering their talents to the band were Jeanette Borecki, Beverly Boudreau, Mary Theresa Hanlon, Sheila Nelson, Noreen Ravenna, Doris Royce, Theresa Salengo, Helen Salengo, George Hults, John Molaski, and John Zawistoski.

The Glee Club members from our class were Anna Gola, Celia Johnson, Patricia Kaszuba, Doris Royce, Theresa Salengo, John Brytowski, Francis Czachor, John Kruszewski, Donald Sevigny, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski. At Christmas and Easter, both the band and the glee club combined to present a concert.

Two of our classmates, William Arnado and John Zawistoski, won a starting position on the varsity basketball team, while Thomas Bania, Richard Dodds, John Kruszewski, and George Stomper obtained assignments on the junior varsity team.

Mid-year examinations soon crept up and the teachers were anxious to learn how much knowledge we observed in our first semester. All the students were at ease after report cards were issued, but they still continued their battle with the books.

On the baseball field that year were William Arnado, Richard Dodds, George Stomper, and John Zawistoski.

At this time, Mr. Ianni picked the top musicians from the band to represent the school in the All-State Band at Burlington. Two from our class, Doris Royce and John Zawistoski, were among the chosen ones.

Soon the baseball season was upon us. Those participating were David Carlson, Thomas Daley, Robert Guertin, John Haley, Gary Hesse, Francis Pawlusia, Francis Pietryka, John Reczek, and Donald Woods.

During Senior Week Thomas Daley gave a commendable performance with his oral piece, "Jimmy Studies Geography" in the Prize Speaking Contest. As the judges reached a decision concerning the contestants, the models for the Fashion Show displayed their finest garments. Appearing in the Fashion Show were Phyllis Benham, Joan Czachor, Christine Carlson, Emma Deo, Anna May Foster, Marie Glodzik, Carol Johnson, Roberta Johnson, Victoria Jakubiak, Anna Kaszuba, Mary Marsh, Linda Taylor, and Catherine Zawistoski.

At the conclusion of Senior Week, we left the school for a well-deserved vacation.

1959-1960

SEPTEMBER, 1959, brought proud sophomores into Westside High. We now held a more dignified position.

We had one new faculty member. Mrs. Kapusta was the head of the Commercial Department this year.

To get the year underway, Miss Bliss called a class meeting to elect our class officers. Those chosen were:

President: Robert Guertin.

Vice-President: Victoria Jakubiak.

Secretary-Treasurer: Thomas Daley.

The Grid season was under way again. The sophomore boys participating were David Carlson, Thomas Daley, Robert Guertin, John Haley, Kenneth Jepson, and Donald Woods.

Once again, One-Act Play try-outs were held. The sophomores contributing their talents were Thomas Daley, William Berg, Anna May Foster, Kenneth Jepson, Roberta Johnson, John Reczek, Mary Reczek, and Catherine Zawistoski.

The Athletic Play came soon after the One-Act Plays. Roberta Johnson and Catherine Zawistoski were the class participants.

The basketball season was now upon us. The Junior Varsity players were David Carlson, Thomas Daley, Robert Guertin, John Haley, Francis Pietryka, John Reczek, and Donald Woods.

All members of the band and chorus now busily began preparing for the Christmas Concert. The sophomore class was well represented in both of them.

Mid-year examinations would be upon us in a very short time, so everyone was cramming for them during the next few weeks.

The annual Spring Concert was held again this year. Majorette try-outs were also held around this time. Sally Pokrywka and Victoria Jakubiak were chosen as new twirlers.

By this time the baseball season was here once again. Our class's participants were Thomas Daley, Robert Guertin, John Haley, and John Reczek.

During Senior Week the Prize Speaking Contest was held. Anna May Foster and Roberta Johnson took part in this and did very well. The Fashion Show was held the same night and all the sophomore girls participated. Marie Glodzik was the piano accompanist.

At the conclusion of the school year, we departed for a long awaited summer vacation.

1960-1961

FOLLOWING a restful summer for all, we again entered the halls of Westside to begin the second half of our high school career. Immediately we elected John Reczek as President, Donald Woods as Vice President, and Kenneth Jepson as Secretary-Treasurer.

Two new teachers entered our faculty this year; they were Miss Patricia Polzello, Commercial Department; and Mr. Kenneth O'Neill, English and French Department.

Autumn again brought football season. Supporting the grid team from our class were David Carlson, Thomas Daley, Robert Egan, Robert Guertin, John Haley, Kenneth Jepson, Robert Lewis, Francis Pietryka, John Reczek and Donald Woods.

The One-Act plays were next to come along. Taking part in the play entitled "Mad Breakfast," were Christine Carlson, Anna Mae Foster, Roberta Johnson, Mary Reczek, Marcia Tumielewicz, and Catherine Zawistoski.

As the weather grew colder the thoughts of the school turned to basketball. Lending their scoring ability from our class were David Carlson, Thomas Daley, Robert Guertin, John Haley, Francis Pietryka, John Reczek and Donald Woods.

Also organized at this time was a girls' basketball team. Supporting our class were Christine Carlson, Mary Reczek, and Catherine Zawistoski.

The annual Christmas Concert followed shortly. The band was under the direction of Mr. Napoleon Ianni, and the chorus under the direction of Miss Margaret Bliss.

Playing in the band from our class this year were Phyllis Benham, Joan Czachor, Anna Mae Foster, Roberta Johnson, Victoria Jakubiak, Anna Kaszuba, Francis Pietryka, Sally Pokrywka, Mary Reczek, Ceil Salengo, Marcia Tumielewicz and Catherine Zawistoski.

Class Prophecy

THE TIME is June, 1981. The place is Zarth, a newly discovered planet. The occasion is the 20th reunion of the class of '61.

Zarth is 45 million miles from the sun and is a rich and truly beautiful planet. The man who discovered this planet is very famous. This man is Donald Sevigny, a very daring explorer. The party is to be held at his elaborately designed home. His wife, the former Ceil Johnson, who was a supervisor of the Surgery Department at a Clinic in Paris, makes a fine hostess.

The first guest to arrive is Milt Jepson in his powerful space jet. Milt is a famous rocket designer on Earth. He has recently made the gas turbine space engine practical.

Next to come is Francis Czachor, the newly elected President of the universe, and his wife, the former Noreen Ravenna. Noreen is a well-known actress. She has made the movie, "The Beauty and the Space Monster," a great success, and because of it Noreen has received her fifth Oscar.

Shortly after, George Stomper makes his entrance. George is a night watchman for the Central Universe Public Service Corporation. This is a surprise to all present because no one can understand how George manages to stay awake all night. Maybe it's because he sleeps all day as he sometimes did back in high school.

A new '81 mobile lands and a cute couple steps out. It is none other than Tom Bania, a professional football player and his wife, the former Patty Pietryka. Patty was elected Miss Universe before her recent marriage.

In the next group that appears is Anna Gola, a hostess on a trans-universe rocket. From all reports Anna is very popular among the passengers. She is escorted by the famous pilot, John Molaski. John has driven many a rocket, all without a crack up.

Then comes the former Sheila Nelson and her husband. Sheila was recently named "Mother of the Year." As she displays pictures of her nine children, she soon becomes the center of attraction.

Arriving next is Theresa Salengo, a retired X-Ray Technician. Terry is now happily married to a famous brain surgeon.

Suddenly there is a loud crash in the parking lot and a little later quite an argument is taking place. Richard LeFevre, an owner of a large dairy farm, has backed into the rocket of John Kurant, a wealthy "Used Rocket Dealer." There is no damage done, so after a while the two are the best of friends again.

During the commotion two more guests have arrived. The first one is Doris Royce. Doris has just returned from missionary work in Mars where her influence helped subdue an uprising. The other is Patty Kaszuba. Patty has recently received her degree and has been named superintendent of nurses at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Next to appear is Bill Arnado and his wife, the former Jeanette Borecki. Billy is Lightweight Champion to the Universe and is sure to hold the title for a long time. Jeanette is supervisor of the X-ray Department at the President's Hospital.

Out of the sky comes an oddly designed rocket. It announces the arrival of the famous Space Patrol. The captain of the great law agent patrol is John Brytowski. George Hults and Walter Hyjek are his lieutenants. They have recently captured a dangerous space spy, and because of their courageous work they have become heroes.

Helen Salengo, who has arrived next, is head X-ray Technician at the Jupiter Memorial Hospital. She is escorted by a well-known doctor.

Beverly Boudreau, a famous fashion designer, appears with John Kruszewski. Bev's latest creations are worn by most of the guests. John is Vice President of the Universe.

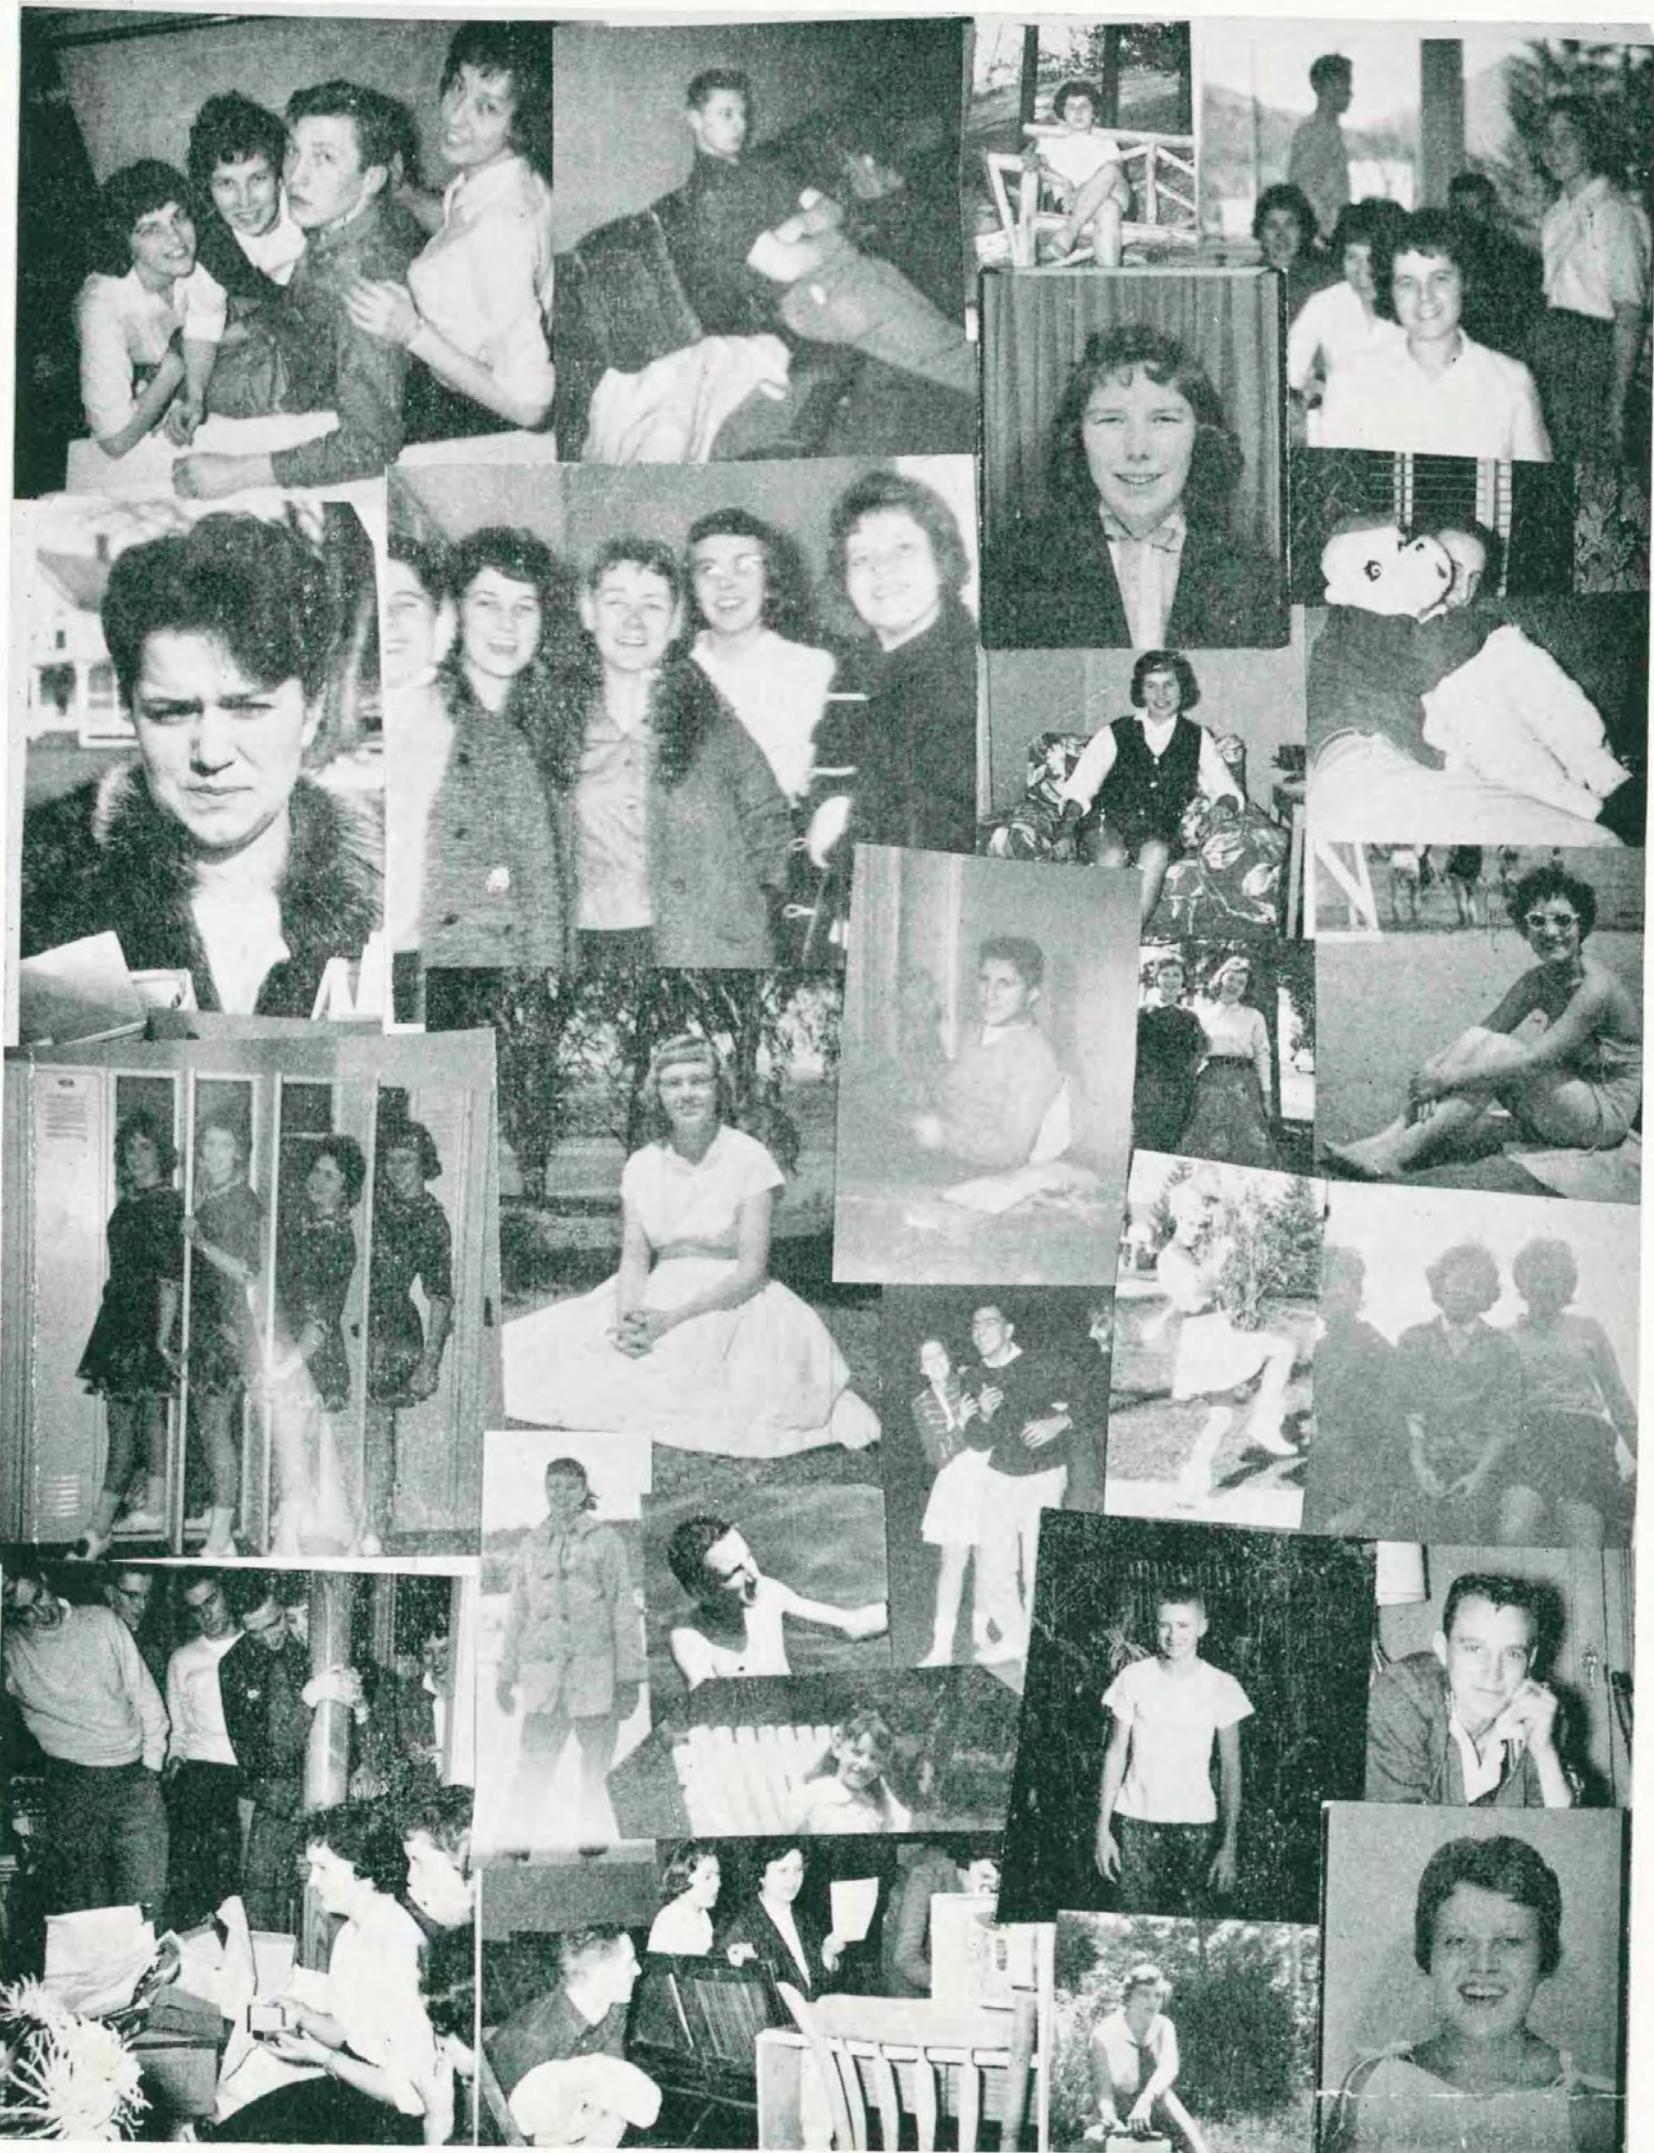

Next to arrive is Mary Theresa Hanlon, a well known model. She is escorted by Dick Dodds, the famous Ping-Pong Champion.

In the last group to arrive are John McDevitt and his private secretary, Loretta Jakubowski. John is manager of the Bubble Bubble Gum factory which guarantees the biggest bubbles ever made.

Also in this group are Mary Ann Tomaszewska, Rose Turner, and Joe Grabowski. Rose and Mary Ann are secretaries at the White House and Joe is a well-known stock car driver.

The parting hour only comes too quickly. Everyone has had a swell time. It has been fun and gay to see all our classmates again.

Class Pastimes

WILLIAM ARNADO--Rocky spent most of his time playing sports. His other interest was girls. You were very enthusiastic about both of them, weren't you, Rocky?

THOMAS BANIA--Barney spent most of his time at Vicky's. It must have been cold walking up there in the winter months.

JEANETTE BORECKI--could usually be seen each day taking that long hike up Pleasant Street. The fresh air always felt good, didn't it, Jean?

BEVERLY BOUDREAU--was the actress of our class. Bev spent much of her time on the town hall stage, improving her ability.

JOHN BRYTOWSKI--was constantly driving around in his blue Chevy. John must have put quite a few miles on it!

FRANCIS CZACHOR--Franny spent most of his time keeping scores for the games. We hope to hear someday that you have been made the coach.

RICHARD DODDS--Dick spent most of his time getting George out of bed. You didn't succeed too often, did you, Dick?

ANNA GOLA--was forever trying to complete her homework assignments before class. She always succeeded, but we could never see how.

JOSEPH GRABOWSKI--Joe spent most of his time fishing and hunting. You must have caught some interesting things, didn't you, Joe?

MARY THERESA HANLON--kept herself occupied by filling her hope chest and preparing for the big day.

GEORGE HULTS--George spent most of his time helping his father. Think you will ever become a veterinarian, George?

WALTER HYJEK--Walter spent most of his time helping his father. Do you plan on being the next janitor of Westside High?

LORETTA JAKUBOWSKI--spent a great deal of her time improving her skill at typing and shorthand. We know you'll make a fine secretary some day.

MILTON JEPSON--Milt spent most of his time souping up his car. It must have run into a little money, didn't it, Milt?

CEIL JOHNSON--was most generally seen rushing around, trying to get our Green and Gold out on time. You did a fine job, Ceil.

PATRICIA KASZUBA--was always seen passing her homework around to her fellow classmates. Thanks a lot, Pat!

JOHN KRUSZEWSKI--Kruizer spent most of his time doing nothing. There wasn't much to do anyway was there, Kruizer?

JOHN KURANT--Mike spent most of his time chauffeuring. You should start a taxi company, Mike.

RICHARD LEFEVRE--Ritchie spent most of his time riding around with Mike. You two must have burned a lot of gas.

JOHN McDEVITT--Jack spent most of his time studying economics. You never could figure that course out, could you, Jack?

JOHN MOLASKI--Johnny spent most of his time working; you always were the ambitious type, weren't you, John?

PATRICIA PIETRYKA--took part in many school activities at Westside. You were a swell cheerleader and majorette, Patty!

NOREEN RAVENNA--spent much of her time planning for her many parties and then cleaning up after them. Need we say more?

DORIS ROYCE--busied herself studying and practicing her baritone horn. Her many trips to All-State were really a good pay-off.

HELEN AND THERESA SALENGO--were always seen paling around together. Wherever one is you can be sure to find the other?

DONALD SEVIGNY--Ducky spent most of his time studying. It will pay off in the future, Donald.

GEORGE STOMPER--George spent most of his time trying to get out of bed and getting to school on time. You didn't succeed too many times did you, George?

ROSELIN TURNER--spent her time chauffeuring everybody around in her "Ford Hotrod." How many times did you run out of gas, Rose?

MARY ANN TOMASZEWSKA--Spent most of her time studying and going to the Post Office during noon. You certainly kept them busy with letters from the Navy.

SHEILA NELSON--could always be seen yelling our team on to victory at basketball and football games. We've certainly appreciated your lively spirit, Sheila?

THERESA SALENGO
JOHN BRYTOWSKI

Class Will

WILLIAM ARNADO--Wills Skippy to Tina Carlson. Take good care of it, Tina.

THOMAS BANIA--Gives his football ability to Tommy Daley. Let's see you complete as many passes, Tom.

JEANETTE BORECKI--Wills her position as girls' basketball manager to Vicki Jakubiak. Make sure you keep track of the basketballs, Vicki?

BEVERLY BOUDREAU--Wills her place on the Town Hall stage to Phyllis Turner. You'll have to go some to beat Bev, Phyllis?

JOHN BRYTOWSKI--Bequeaths his driving ability to Dave Carlson. Watch out for the telephone poles, Dave.

FRANCIS CZACHOR--Leaves nothing to everybody.

RICHARD DODDS--Wills his faithful truck to his sister. We hope that you are a good mechanic, Carol.

ANNA GOLA--Wills her tendency to argue to Cathy Zawistowski. It can be a disadvantage at times, Cathy.

JOSEPH GRABOWSKI--Leaves his seat in biology class to Bob Fredette and hopes he has better luck.

MARY HANLON--Wills her bushy hair to Mr. Hinckey. You have enough to spare, Mary Theresa!

GEORGE HULTS--Wills his giggles to Bob Egan. You never were very noisy, Bob!

WALTER HYJEK--Wills his janitor job to Butch Grabowski. Keep the halls clean, Butch, and they might put you on full time.

LORETTA JAKUBOWSKI--Wills her shorthand ability to anyone who enjoys shorthand as much as Loretta did.

MILTON JEPSON--Wills his car to his brother and hopes that Ken has better luck with the cops than he did.

CEIL JOHNSON--Wills her driving ability to her sister Carol. We all know what a good driver Ceil is!

PATRICIA KASZUBA--Wills her long walk home to her sister Anna. It's quite a hike, Anna!

JOHN KRUSZEWSKI--Bestows all his excess hair to Mr. Hinckey. We wouldn't want you to catch cold, Sir?

JOHN KURANT--Wills his red convertible to his brother Joe. Take as good care of it as John did, Joe.

RICHARD LEFEVRE--Leaves to Mr. O'Neill a new transmission for his car. We hope you will have better luck with this one, Mr. O'Neill?

JOHN McDEVITT--Wills his cleated shoes to Mr. Hinckey. He thinks that yours are almost worn out, Mr. Hinckey?

JOHN MOLASKI--Wills his seat in Miss Hinckey's room to anyone that can keep it.

SHEILA NELSON--Bequeaths her many seats in Study Hall to Marcia Tumielewicz. You're off to a good start, Marcia.

PATRICIA PIETRYKA--Wills her cheering ability to her sister Jeanie. Patty was always cheering her team on.

NOREEN RAVENNA--Wills her bottle of peroxide to Anna May Foster. Don't use it too often, Anna May.

DORIS ROYCE--Wills her baritone to Phyllis Turner. We hope you play as well as Doris, Phyl!

HELEN SALENGO--Leaves her silliness to her sister Ceil. Remember, Ceil, "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

THERESA SALENGO--Wills Mr. Egan a piece of sandpaper to clean her desk in physics class. It certainly needs it doesn't it, Terry?

DONALD SEVIGNY--Wills his seat in Mr. Zawistowski's room to his brothers. Let's see you do as well in math as Donald, boys.

GEORGE STOMPER--Wills his alarm clock to Tommy Daley. Now maybe you'll get to school on time, Tom!

MARY ANN TOMASZEWSKA--Wills her skating ability to Jane Kosmider. Don't get too black and blue, Jane!

ROSELIN TURNER--Wills her great speeches in English to anyone who can compete with her. You were always so nervous, Rose!

CELIA JOHNSON
GEORGE STOMPER

Class Presentations

WILLIAM ARNADO--A basketball, to remind you of the many times you scored for Westside.

THOMAS BANIA--A bicycle, to make your frequent trips to Vicky's easier.

JEANETTE BORECKI--A king-size bag of potato chips. Now you will never run out of them, Jean.

JOHN BRYTOWSKI--A little black book, to keep track of all his girlfriends.

BEVERLY BOUDREAU--A bottle of tranquilizers to quiet your nerves in chemistry class.

FRANCIS CZACHOR--A gold key to Teensville. Need we say more?

RICHARD DODDS--A gift certificate worth $5.00 at Stowell's Corp., to use as a down payment on a new truck.

ANNA GOLA--A pack of gum so that you won't have to ask everybody for some.

JOSEPH GRABOWSKI--A toy gun to remind you of all those times you went hunting.

MARY HANLON--A bottle of curl remover. Mary never did like her curly hair.

GEORGE HULTS--A bottle of Adorn Hair Spray to keep your golden locks in place.

WALTER HYJEK--A new broom to help you clean up the school.

LORETTA JAKUBOWSKI--A bottle of Coca-Cola to remind you of the times you sold sodas at games.

MILTON JEPSON--A car of your own. Now you won't have to share it with Ken.

CELIA JOHNSON--A noise-maker. Ceil was the quiet one in our class.

PATRICIA KASZUBA--A telephone to replace the one she wore out calling all her friends.

JOHN KRUSZEWSKI--A position at Ford Motor Co. for designing new models.
Do you think they'll accept Yogi Bear styles?

JOHN KURANT--A set of cast iron wheels. We're sure these will never wear out, John.

RICHARD LEFEVRE--A $5.00 gift certificate to fill your gas tank. You sure must have used a lot, Rickie.

JOHN McDEVITT--A bottle of growing pills. You've never changed much, Jack.
Maybe this will help you a little.

JOHN MOLASKI--A deed to the Grand Union chain stores. Now money won't be any problem, Johnny.

SHEILA NELSON--A chair to remind you of all the seats you got in study hall.

PATRICIA PIETRYKA--A pair of majorette boots to remind you of the many miles you've marched at parades.

NOREEN RAVENNA--A piece of wood to make up for all we burned in the fireplace at her parties.

DORIS ROYCE--A book to remind her of the nights she stayed home and studied.

HELEN SALENGO--A chain for your many class rings.

THERESA SALENGO--A comb. You were always the first and last in front of the locker mirror, Terry.

DONALD SEVIGNY--A test tube from chemistry to remind you of all the experiments you made.

GEORGE STOMPER--A king-size alarm clock to make sure you get to classes on time.

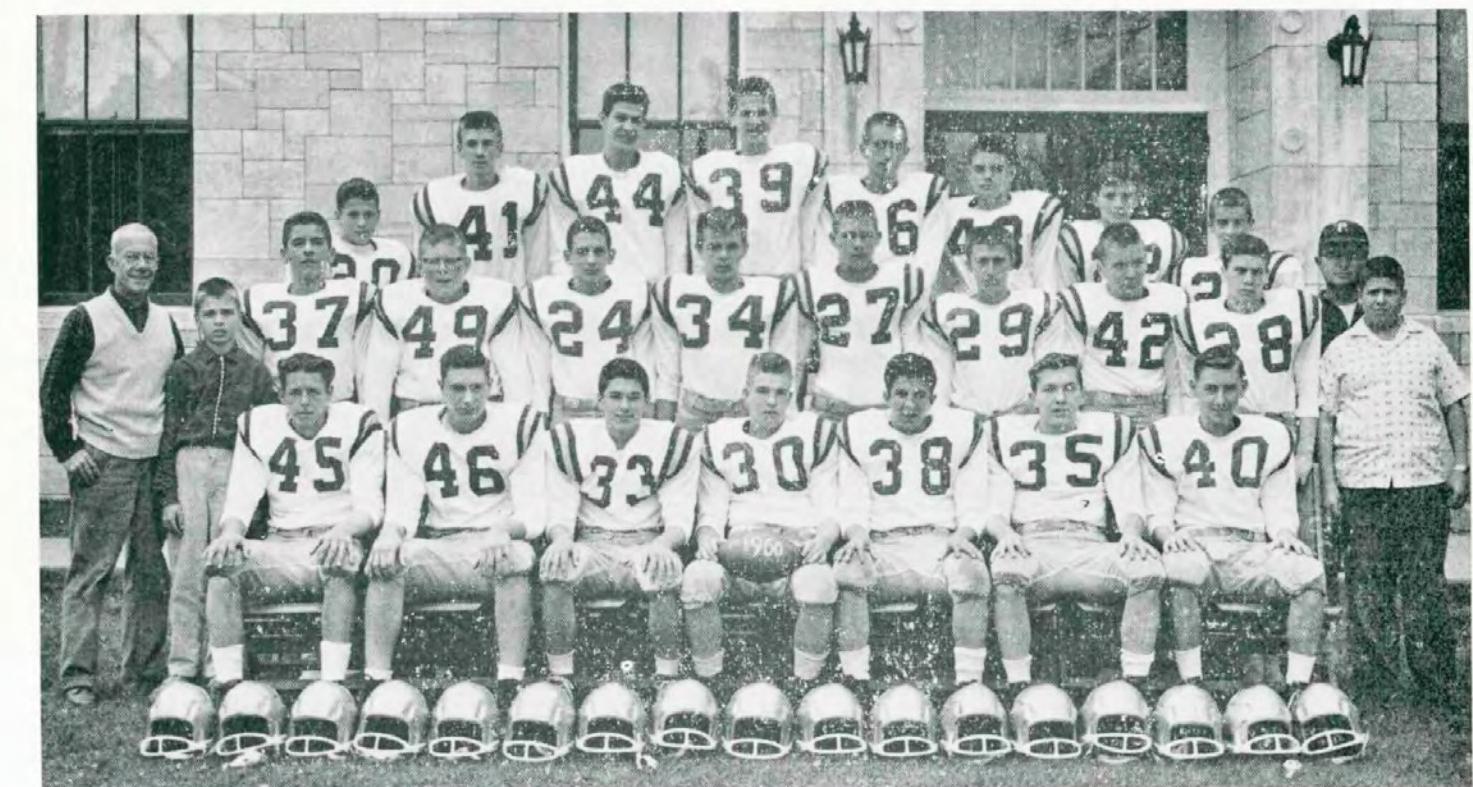

MARY ANN TOMASZEWSKA--A fountain pen to remind you of all those letters you wrote.

ROSELIN TURNER--A giant box of seeds to replace all the trees you knocked down while driving.

ANNA GOLA

Class Poem

Our high school days are done,
Full of problems, joy, and fun.

For tonight we forever part,
That each alone his course may start.

To all our friends we bid adieu,
And hope each one's dream comes true.
For now we must break our tie,
With dear, beloved, Westside High.

PATRICIA KASZUBA

THE 1960 grid season proved to be quite dismal for the Golden Horde of West Rutland. Eight games were played with Westside losing them all. The starting varsity eleven consisted of three seniors, five juniors, two sophomores, and one freshman. Most of the starting team had to play the whole game because of very little bench strength.

The first game of the season was against a much bigger Winooski team. This proved to be too much for the Horde as they were overpowered 26-0.

The outcome of the second game was another loss for the Westsiders. This time we lost to Bennington Catholic 25-6. Although the score may not show it, the Horde played a gallant game.

In the third contest of the season the Horde lost again, this time to a much superior team, Woodstock. West Rutland scored two touchdowns but to no avail because of Woodstock's 41 points.

In the grid battle with Burr & Burton the Horde lost a heartbreaker. The hometown team drew first blood of the afternoon, with a touchdown in the early part of the second quarter. However the Bulldogs stormed back and tied the score before the half ended. In the second half they scored again. That proved to be the winning tally.

In the fifth game of the season the Hartford Midgets completely outclassed Westside, 45-0.

In Fair Haven, West Rutland played a hard game but came out on the short end of the score, taking a 20-6 loss.

In the Poultney game, Westside held its own until the beginning of the third quarter when the score read 6-0 in favor of Poultney; from then on the Horde continually lost ground; the resulting score was 25-0.

In the last encounter of the season, Westside came up against the much superior team of Middlebury High; this resulted in an overwhelming defeat.

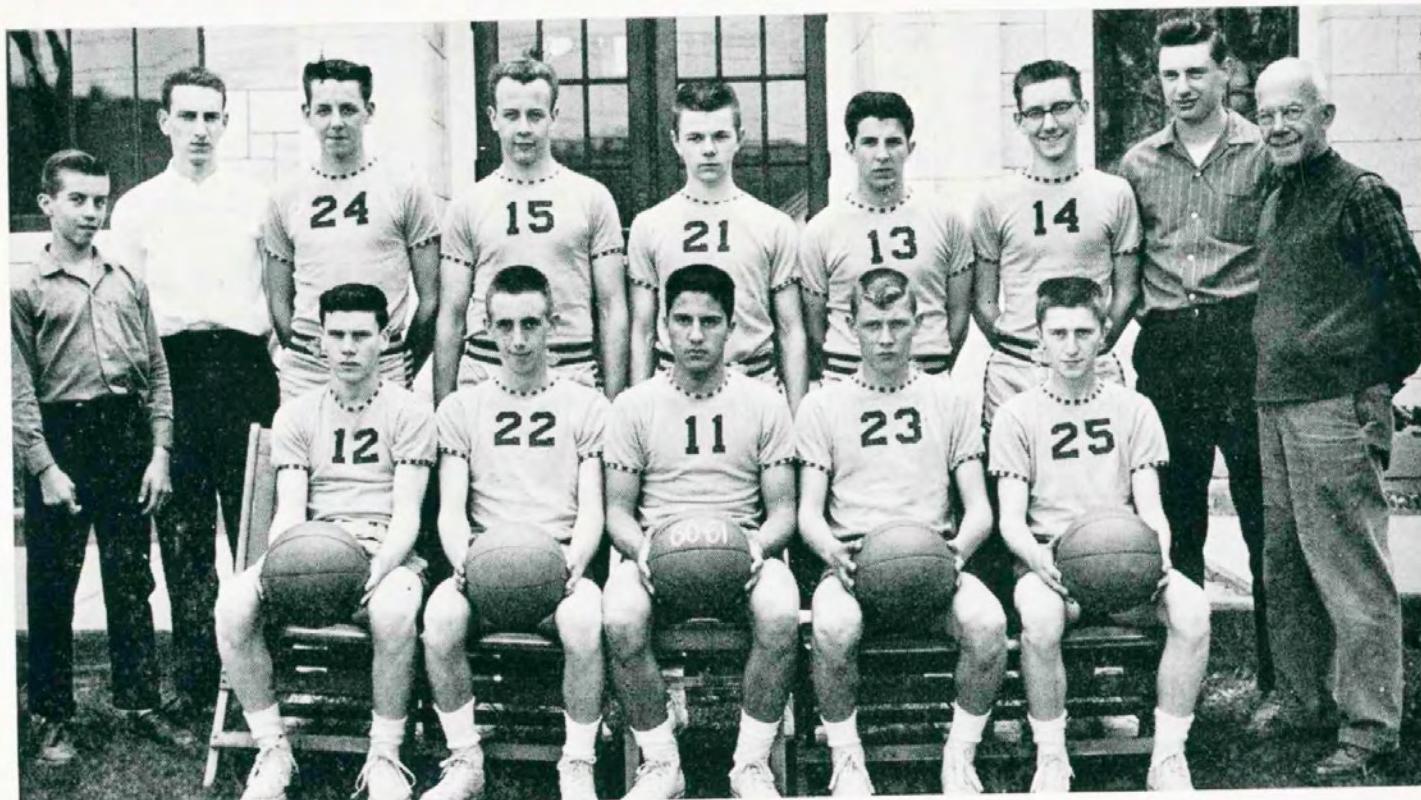

The coaches this year were Francis N. Hinckley and James P. Leamy.

THE WEST RUTLAND High basketball squad had one of the poorest campaigns in the school's hoop annals this year.

The Horde was defeated in all but one of the preseason games. Their lone victory was over Fair Haven. This proved to be the most exciting game of the basketball season, the score being 53-52.

Westside failed to post a Southern League win and finished in last place with a 1 win 17 loss record.

William Arnado was a credit to the school finishing fifth in individual scoring with 199 points.
